Southern CT BOMA invites you to tour...

Trump Parc Stamford

Join your BOMA colleagues on FEBRUARY 24TH to view Trump Parc Stamford, a $160 million dazzling high-rise condominium tower that will redefine luxury residential living in Fairfield County.

Trump Parc Stamford, the first luxury high-rise condominium in Connecticut to bear the legendary Trump name, will feature 170 luxurious residences complemented by a wealth of world-class amenities and services. The soaring 34-story glass and cast stone tower will be the tallest building in Stamford and one of the tallest residential structures between Manhattan and Boston.

One, two, three bedroom, and penthouse duplexes are available, with stunning views of Stamford, Long Island Sound, and Manhattan's skyline.

Partnering on this new development in downtown Stamford is Thomas L. Rich, Louis R. Cappelli and Donald J. Trump.

Amenities abound in this high-rise building. The entire seventh floor is comprised of a virtual country club within the building: a state of the art fitness center, an all season lap pool with adjoining wraparound terraces, men's and women's locker rooms, saunas, screening and billiards rooms, and party rooms with a caterer's kitchen.

Located only 35 miles from Mid-town Manhattan, and close to commerce, culture, education, and recreation within Stamford, with Long Island Sound nearby, living at Trump Parc Stamford offers living at its best.
