Laure Aubuchon

City of Stamford

Ms. Aubuchon is the Director of Economic Development and Intergovernmental Affairs for the City of Stamford. Prior to coming to Stamford, Ms. Aubuchon has worked primarily in the private sector. She began her career at W. R. Grace where she was the assistant to the Chairman, J. Peter Grace; the Director of Business development for Grace's Southeast Asia Industrial Chemical Group, where she was based in Hong Kong and Vice President of International for Baker & Taylor, Grace's book wholesale division. Ms. Aubuchon spent 4 years at Ernst & Young as part of the business development group. Her other public sector experience was directly following 9/11 where she joined the Bloomberg administration as head of International Business Development for New York City at the New York City Economic Development Corporation.

Laurence Gottlieb

Office of the County Executive

Mr. Gottlieb was appointed in January 2010 to the position of Director of Economic Development in the Astorino administration in Westchester County. He has over 20 years of experience as a top management executive in several major corporations, public affairs agencies and a global non-profit organization. Mr. Gottlieb is responsible for retaining, attracting and growing businesses in support of Westchester's $26 billion economy for the benefit of all residents. The Office of Tourism and Film, as well as Westchester's Industrial Development Agency, report to him.

BOMA/Southern CT and BOMA/Westchester invites you to ...

Economic Development: Stamford and Westchester County

Join your BOMA colleagues from Southern Connecticut and Westchester to hear Laure Aubuchon, Executive Director of the City of Stamford and Larry Gottlieb, Director of Economic Development for Westchester County discuss what is happening in their area.

Economic development generally refers to the sustained, concerted actions of policymakers and communities that promote the standard of living and economic health of a specific area. These actions can involve multiple areas including development of human capital, critical infrastructure, regional competitiveness, environmental sustainability, social inclusion, health, safety, literacy and other in initiatives.

How do these two areas compete and/or complement each other? Just a few miles separate these two areas, but they cross state lines. What makes a company decide on Stamford over Westchester County or a business' move from Stamford to Westchester County? Taxes? Transportation? Housing? Population?
