

Eye-Opening Emergency Preparedness Updates from Local Officials

Tuesday, May 21, 2019

Sheraton Stamford Hotel

700 East Main St, Stamford

11:45am - 1:30pm

Join your Southern Connecticut BOMA colleagues to hear from local officials on the latest updates in emergency preparedness. Captain Sue Bretthauer of the Stamford Police Department and Stamford Chief Fire Marshal Walter Seely will discuss a variety of dangerous situations and what you can do to keep your buildings and tenants safe.

Topics will include...

Active shooters, bomb threats, weather emergencies;

The proper way to run a fire drill in your building;

How to organize fire wardens for larger tenants;

What to do when emergency services personnel can't make it to your location in an emergency.

BOMA Members: This program is included if you prepaid for 2019 programs with your dues, but registration is still required.
